

Alfy Roby

Alfy Roby is a Head Coach for Connecticut Spirit AAU basketball Organization in Harford Connecticut. He is responsible for providing leadership in the growth, management, and evaluation of all areas of player development.

Coach Roby is currently working as Development Coach for a NCAA Division III college in New York City. Coach Roby has experienced firsthand the development and design of basketball systems. Coach Roby has coached girls and women's basketball on the following levels : NCAA Division III in New York City; Junior College Division III in New haven CT; Girls High School in Hebron, Meriden, and New Haven CT; Co-Ed Private school in New Britain CT; Elementary School in Hartford CT; and Summer League Coaching in the Connecticut Nutmeg Games in Bridgeport CT.

Over Coach Roby's 13 years of coaching he has received the following accolades:

2008 Hudson Valley Women's Athletic Conference Championship
2006 NJCAA District F Coach of the Year
2006 NJCAA Region XXI Championship
2006 NJCAA Rosemarie Battaglia Sportsmanship Award
1997 and 1999 Hartford Elementary School Basketball Championship
1997 Hartford Elementary School Coach of the Year

Coach Roby received his Masters of Science from Capella University in Leadership in Higher Education and received his Bachelor of Science from the University of Connecticut in Human Development and Family Relations; he also minored in Pre-Law. Coach Roby has over ten years of experience in risk management, in addition to his 11 years of experience in higher education where he works in student development. He works with first year students, students on academic probation, scholarship students, and student athletes.